FOREWORD

NOTE:—This is the first and only printed data of the Poindexter family records in question to the writer, and was compiled by:—

Christian Poindexter of Detroit, Mich., grandson of Christian and Lourinda Keck Poindexter.

Clarence H. Poindexter—St. Louis, Missouri, son of Early Whitten and Molly Hatfield Poindexter.

Opal Yarbrough Poindexter, daughter-in-law of Huette Poindexter and wife of Ray W. Poindexter of Odon, Ind., with the assistance of other descendants, who willingly helped in this work in any way.

“One generation passeth away and another generation cometh, and it is a duty which each succeeding generation owes to its predecessors, to itself, and to posterity, to preserve all valuable reminiscences.” It is to fulfill this obligation that the following facts are being published.

No occurrence is so suggestive of serious and solemn reflections as the death of our fellow men. When God takes from us one of those spirits with whom we have often sympathized and by whom we have been influenced, He is saying, and it cannot be misunderstood, “Stop and think, whose life is historic and whose history cannot be given without a notice of importance, of events in the history of his or her life among those they shared it with, their neighborhood, county, state or government.

We stand on that line today which separates the most of us from that generation of our noble and hardy men which first inhabited this land.

A few of them still remain, and we can look them in the eye, clasp their hands, but so few of us take the time, and share it, or ask, “The Father’s where are they?”

NOTICE

To person or persons receiving this book:—

This book is a monument to the Poindexter and Keck families, their descendants and a general reminder for all persons in general.

It is a book only of sentiment, but has required the expenditure of time and money to produce. The extent of its value depends upon you, for its distribution is left to you, for the memory of those mentioned herein will depend upon the extent of these records being sold and distributed.

A PERSONAL WORD

To collect the data by mail and all ways possible and compile it for printing has required much patience, monetary expense plus much time as it has now been over six years. To the writer it has been a pastime and a favor for several who have long wished this dream might come true.

The work has little or no intrinsic value, maybe to some, but an attempt has been made to make this book of interest only to families immediately concerned. So here is the book. The compiler can do no more after being secretary and treasurer also for nine years.

Poindexter—French spelling.

Pendexter—English spelling.

Poyndexter—German spelling.

Poindexter crest is a heraldic denice with a doubled up hand fist on the coat of arms, meaning right handed fisted.

MRS. RAY POINDEXTER

OFFICERS SERVING SINCE REUNION WAS ORGANIZED

In 1941; Christian Poindexter of Detroit, Mich., now retired and living in St. Petersburg, Fla., decided to try and see how many of his relatives and descendants he would get in contact with and start a reunion group.

Notices were sent to as many as could be contacted and in August of 1941, the first reunion was held in the form of a basket dinner in the Odon City Park, Odon, Indiana, Daviess county.

There were about forty present. Officers were elected to serve and get the Poindexter family organized. The interest and crowds have increased each year to date.

Lloyd Poindexter of Vincennes, Indiana, served for three years as president.

Veecher Poindexter of Evansville, served one year.

Christian Poindexter of Detroit, Mich., served as president four years.

Ives Poindexter of Sandborn, Indiana, president for 1949 and 1950.

Mrs. Ray (Opal) Poindexter has served secretary the full nine years. Each year the family reunion is held in August and thus far at the Odon City park, the second Sunday in August.

Relatives and friends near Odon welcome any relative who wishes to come to the reunion and needs a place to stay. They are free to contact anyone of the relatives or the secretary for this information.

RECOLLECTIONS OF CHRISTIAN POINDEXTER

CHRISTIAN POINDEXTER II

This is the story of the first Poindexter generation that the writer or persons have any knowledge of.

Christian Poindexter II, grandson of the late Samuel Poindexter and Christian I, and Lourinda Keck Poindexter, when he was 12 years old was told this story by his grandfather, Samuel:

There was a Jan Poindexter, who was born in 1742 in France. He went to Ireland where he married an Irish girl and they came to the United States and settled in the state of Virginia. To them were born three sons.

Later, after his wife died, he and the three sons moved from Virginia to Tennessee. After the sons were grown they all moved to the Blue Grass country close to Cincinnati, Ohio.

Then their father Jan married the second time, to a girl from Tennessee and they had one son Samuel, born to them when the father Jan, was 65 years old. There were also two (2) sisters of Samuel of which we can find no record.

During the 1840's, Samuel moved from Tennessee to Indiana and settled in Martin county north of Bramble, at a small town known then as Kecksville, Indiana; known today as Burns City, Indiana.

Samuel married Turrell Keck and they were blessed with eight children, three boys, Christian. Mac Hewell, Samuel Jr., and five girls, Louiza ; Lucinda ; Mary Ann ; Harriett and Nellie.

Mac Hewell Poindexter married a Faith from Daviess county, near Plainville, Indiana. He died of wounds received in the Civil War, and he left one son, Lee.

Then the one daughter Mary Ann married a Lee Keck, and Harriett married Will Keck, both of Kecksville, Indiana, Martin county.

OVER THE RIVER

Over the river they beckon to me,
Loved ones who've crossed to the farther side
The gleam of their snowy robes I see,
But their voices are lost in the dashing tide.

For none return from those quiet shores,
Who cross with the boatman cold and pale;
We hear the dip of the golden oars,
And catch a gleam of the snowy sail;
And lo! they have passed from our yearning hearts
They cross the stream and are gone for aye.

PERMELIA KUTCH, 90 years old

CHRISTIAN POINDEXTER

Brother and sister, only and oldest living of the late Christian and Lourinda Keck Poindexter.

Peremelia Poindexter
Born June 18, 1860

Married Milton Kutch
Born August 6, 1852
Died April 3, 1929

Married 21 October

Address: Odon. Indiana.

Milton was a school teacher in early life. He and Permelia, his wife, lived on a farm in Martin county, Ind., up to the time of Milton's death. Milton's farm was one of the finest and cleanest in the country. No weeds, briars or brush could be found on his farm. A place for everything—and everything in its place. Mrs. Permelia Kutch now lives in Odon and at the ripe age of 90 years, June 18th, she keeps a well groomed home of three rooms, mows her own lawn and has a small garden which she tends; makes weekly trip to town for her mail and groceries and walks both ways. She has a wonderful memory and a smile for all whom she mee's, and attended church regularly until the past year or so.

FINIS

If life is sacred it should not be allowed to perish. True, the body will return to the dust from whence it came but the remembrance of the life should continue . . . "We are not dead until we are forgotten".

As a last tribute to our loved ones we have compiled the foregoing data in the hope that this precious life shall ever live in the minds of the oncoming generations of this family.
